The Duval County Sheriff's Department recently welcomed a new member to the force, Deputy James Andrzyczak.

Previously an officer at the San Diego and Freer police departments, Andrzyczak is an 18 year veteran of law enforcement.

"I like working in the county, assisting the citizens of Duval," Andrzyczak said of his new position. "I Working with the sheriff, this is a really good department, with good equipment and personnel."

Sworn in

Andrzyczak was sworn in last week by Duval County Sheriff Romeo Ramirez and has since gone on patrol throughout large sections of the county. He calls the department a very close knit office.

"I've known most of the deputies we have here for many years. I've known the chief deputy since he was a patrolman in San Diego. I've known the sheriff just about as long as I've been here," Andrzyczak said. "Everybody knows what is going on with everyone else. It's like a big family. I hope to do a good job and help out as much as I can with whatever I can."
